LOGLINE

An ex actress with her daughter are grieving the death of her husband, with a friend they will try a project of a new type of family.

SYNOPSIS

Julia (48), and ex actress and her daughter Emma (12) settle down in a large house in a village in Córdoba, Argentina. It is winter and Julia must fix the house to sell it. It has been time since the death of her husband and Emma's father but they are still in mourning.

The days pass darkly. Sadness has made Julia quiet, distant with her daughter.

One night Julia runs into Gaspar a lifelong friend of Julia and ex theater partner. Gaspar tries to convince Julia to participate in a theater contest.

Julia, Emma and Gaspar find a way to rebuild their lives starting an uncertain project of a new kind of family.
